

2020 Boy Scout Programs

Learn & Earn

Leaders, Here's a Great Way to Earn Badges and More

Gateway Arch National Park is proud to offer Boy Scouts of all levels a variety of FREE PROGRAMS to help them earn their badges. All of our interesting and educational programs are led by National Park Service rangers year-round and give scouts a chance to see the rich history of St. Louis differently.

Boy Scout Programs at Gateway Arch National Park
For information, visit gatewayarch.com or call (877) 982-1410.
Reservations must be made at least one month in advance.

Tiger Cubs

Fun & Games

Learn about the lives and pastimes of nineteenth century boys and girls. Scouts will create and take home a pioneer toy. Takes place at the Museum at the Gateway Arch.

Plains Indians

Explore the culture of the Plains Indians. Learn about their dependence on the buffalo, what they ate, what they wore, and how they had fun. Includes a create and take home activity. Takes place at the Museum at the Gateway Arch.

Cub Scouts

Wolf Cubs

Council Fire (Wolf Core Adventure)

Explore the Museum at the Gateway Arch and learn about the history and future of your community. Talk with a National Park Service ranger and learn about service to community and country. Fulfills requirements 3a, 3b, and 5.

Bear Cubs

Beat of the Drum (Bear Elective Adventure)

Learn about the history and culture of the Osage Indians of the woodland areas of the Mississippi Valley at the Museum at the Gateway Arch. Fulfills requirements 1, 2, and 4.

Webelos

Build My Own Hero

(Webelos and AOL Elective Adventure)

What does it take to be a hero? National Park Service rangers will introduce you to some famous and not-so-famous heroes that have made a difference in our community, country, and world. Fulfills requirements 2, 3, and 4. Takes place at the Museum at the Gateway Arch.

Reservations for Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts and Webelos are taken year round. Approximately 50 minutes in length, each program highlights a different, age-appropriate theme. A one-month advance reservation is required. Minimum of six scouts required (max 30). Groups with less than the minimum may be placed with another group, if available.

All scouting information can be found at www.nps.gov/jeff in the Learn About the Park section.

The Resource Stewardship Scout Ranger Program

Scouts of all ages can participate in educational and/or volunteer service projects at national park sites where they can explore the parks and learn more about protecting our natural and cultural resources. Scouts receive participation certificates and/or patches. Contact Gateway Arch National Park staff for more information at (314) 655-1635.

A special scout patch is available for purchase upon completion of a park Scout program.
